Wylam Branch Library Closing April 26 to Make Way for New Building

City leaders, library staff, and community members gathered this morning at the Wylam Library for a closing ceremony to mark the library's past and prepare for the construction of a new building. The library will officially close at 6:00 p.m. on April 26; demolition is expected to start in May; the new library is slated to open in January 2020.
